CALL FOR PAPERS
The World Economy Research Institute's 13th Annual Conference
International Competitiveness and Urbanization
Warsaw, June 15, 2018 (Friday)

The World Economy Research Institute at the SGH Warsaw School of Economics (Poland) is pleased to announce its 13th Annual Conference on Innovation and Competitiveness.

RATIONALE

In the era of globalization and fast technological progress, the importance of urbanization has grown, with the cities being the centers and drivers of socio-economic development, and representing the focal points of modern life-style. Therefore, the following question arises: How may cities contribute to a competitive advantage in contemporary world economy? The World Economy Research Institute's 13th Annual Conference on competitiveness will seek to answer this question.

We invite papers related to the following topics:

- theoretical and practical aspects of international competitiveness and urbanization, including the concepts of metropolitan innovation systems, smart city, internationalization, and cultural diversity;
- competitive position of selected economies, taking into account their urbanization patterns;
- development trends of the biggest cities in Poland and in the world;
- urban policy.

PAPER SUBMISSION:

Authors are invited to submit abstracts electronically (up to 250 words in MS Word or PDF format) to: weri@sgh.waw.pl.

Submissions should contain: the title, name(s) of the author(s), affiliation(s), address(es), telephone number(s) and e-mail address(es). Templates are downloadable from the Conference's website.

Papers accepted in the review process will be published in a book or in International Journal of Management and Economics.

KEY DATES:

The deadline for abstract submissions is April 30, 2018.

Notifications on acceptance will be sent to the authors by May 10, 2018.

Participants presenting a paper during the conference are asked to submit their full papers by June 9, 2018.

Registration deadline: June 9, 2018.

Conference fee:

Participation in the Conference is free of charge. There is, however, a fee for publishing your paper in the conference proceedings.

The fee of 900 PLN (approx. 250 EUR) per one scientific article is required for publishing the paper in the Conference proceeding book, which will be proposed for the Conference Proceedings Citation Index (CPCI), a Web of Science™ Core Collection database.
