Contents

Preface
  Zoltán Kovács ........................................... 7

Welcoming address at the International Conference on 'Challenges of Ageing in Villages and Cities: The Central European Experience
  György Enyedi .................................................. 9

The challenges of ageing: towards an inclusive perspective
  Joos Droogleever Fortuijn ........................................ 11

Population ageing in Hungary and Europe
  László Hablicsek .............................................. 24

Relationship between fertility and population ageing in East Central Europe
  Ewa Frątczak–Iga Sikorska ....................................... 44

Housing conditions of elderly in post-socialist cities
  Zoltán Kovács ................................................... 68

Ageing population in Moscow: Does the capital city suffer differently from the rest of Russia?
  Irina Molodikova–Alla Makhrova ................................ 87

Theoretical issues of local population and social policy in ‘shrinking’ cities– some findings from Bratislava
  Branislav Bleha–Ján Buček ...................................... 110
Changing age structure of population as a challenge for local authorities: Population prospects for city district Prague 3
Boris Burcin – Tomáš Kučera .................................................. 132

The issue of ageing in large Hungarian urban regions
Viktória Szirmai – Zsuzsanna Váradi – Szilvia Kovács – Júlia Schuchmann 161

Abled ageing in Switzerland: Processes of ageing and the need for flexible living conditions
Doris Wastl-Walter – Sabin Bieri – Andrea Ch. Kofler ...................... 178

Strategies in the care for the elderly in a Romanian village
Tünde Turai ................................................................. 190

List of authors ........................................................................ 205